

Loven Ralph T. Sabellano
Advanced English Grammar
TTh 10-11:30
Tenses

Perfect

PICTURE

(Back page)

Present Perfect Tense

1. Mazda Company has kept their craftsmanship since generation.
2. Mazda has just released the 2013 model.
3. I have driven a sports car.
4. After I have polished the car, let's have a ride to the park.

Past Perfect Tense

1. Mazda had lowered the price of its luxury cars before Christmas.
2. If Bryan had not won the race, he would not have a service car.
3. Bryan said, "I have won the race."

Bryan said that he had won the race.

Future Perfect Tense

1. When Bryan drives the car, we will have sat without a single fear.
2. I will have washed the car by the time father wakes up.

3. Mazda Company will have released its latest model before the end of 2013.